Ada Eating Curry in India

BIH Senior Faculty Ada Lum took a sabbatical during the Winter Quarter. Although she did not teach regular BIH classes, she was busier than ever writing new curricula, working on projects and preparing to return to India. Here is a report of her time there.

To India and Back

by Ada Lum

They did it! 20 senior staff of the UESI (Union of Evangelical Students of India) wrote 3 sets of Bible study guides in 8 days last November. One was for seekers, and the two others for disciples. Some thought I was a hard teacher, but we all knew they wouldn't have finished otherwise. The guides were ready to be field tested by students and graduates.

Then they shyly asked if I could return in the spring to do the final editing for publication in June. Within me, considering time and cost, I thought, "Are you crazy?" Aloud, I sweetly said no.

God did it! On the 30-hour flight home my conscience worked overtime: none of the staff had experience in editing Bible studies for publication. So, before I dozed off I told the Lord I'd return if he gave signs. He did.

- 1) He reminded me that the India embassy had originally issued an unexpected double entry visa without cost to be used by May 8.
- 2) In an unplanned layover in Hong Kong I hastily arranged to dine with a friend. At the end of the meal, knowing nothing about the India question, she handed over an envelope stuffed with more than enough US$ for such a trip.

- 3) But what about the time? I was slated for another visit to a closed country in March, the only time I could go between BIH classes. When I arrived home I learned that because of stepped up persecution of Christians in that closed country, I was asked to postpone the training trip.

We did it! So in March I was back in Chennai. Prema, Selva and I worked day and night on the final editing. They learned fast. They were great to work with. So just in time the Lord, Prema, Selva and I finished editing three sets. We celebrated with more hot curry.

Will you do it? Please pray with us that the Lord, who initiated and guided this writing project, will "bring it to its intended goal" (Phil 1:6). That goal is to put into the hands of student leaders on the campuses and graduates in their communities throughout India Bible studies that can help seekers come to trust Jesus and help Christians go deeper in their relationship to that same Lord. ✨

Community Church of Honolulu

Clive's Corner

by Clive Cowell, Executive Director

As newly-appointed Executive Director, I have been thrown into the deep end of a marvelous ministry in the Master's hand. Why do I feel this way? I see more clearly each day that through BIH, we can bring people a message of hope, we can encourage faith in Christ, and we can stir others on to godliness. And all of this is orchestrated by the Master's hand!

Clive Cowell

One passage that motivates me is Hebrews 12:1: "Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us."

Some have thought that this verse is about a whole host of heavenly beings cheering us on as we run our race. I see it differently: I am encouraged that there are a whole host of heavenly beings in heaven witnessing about Christ! It's not me they are cheering on – they are witnessing Christ. It makes me want to join in with the work they have already begun. That stirs me to lay aside every encumbrance. That stirs me to run the race!

I think these messages are as compelling for the old as they are for the young, and vice versa. For example, at a recent barbecue, a young person asked me, "How is God going to use my generation?" It's a good question, isn't it? Perhaps this individual hoped for something new and exciting that no other generation had been called to. The Spirit convicted me to answer this person by saying, "He is the same yesterday, today and forever." In other words, God will use this generation as He has every other generation. While methodologies may change, God has a message that is never changing. God will continue to use broken people to bring about faith and godliness.

Indeed, God used broken people from the past, and these same people are now witnesses of Christ in Heaven! I then encouraged this young person with an old adage I had picked up: "God can draw a straight line even with a crooked stick." Then I put out the challenge: "Are you ready to be in the Master's hand?" That's what it takes. It takes a willingness to be used by God.

I would like to issue this same challenge to all of us connected with Bible Institute of Hawai'i. My hope is that everyone will be encouraged to be used by the Master's hand. We need volunteers; we sure could use more prayer, and we can always use helpers in our classrooms. There is a harvest out there. Let's get to work!

As part of my role, I also have the privilege of participating in how others are witnessing here on earth. On the Big Island, for example, we started a new class this spring with Ada leading 61 students in the Psalms. I was there for the first class and was so encouraged to see so many drawing closer to Christ and in this way declaring who He is! 🌿 BIH is not just about learning the Bible. It's about living out a life of faith. This article, contributed by a BIH Board member, is a great example of how we are responding to God.

Aloha for AIRLINES®

by Kimberly Frank

In response to Aloha Airlines' recent closing, members and friends of Wellspring Covenant Church in Halawa Valley got together to provide support and ease the transition for the displaced employees. It started out with one day of food, fellowship and free haircuts, including the availability of gift cards, groceries, diapers and formula for anyone needing them.

A single day turned into the offering of a regular place for Aloha Airlines employees to get support and feel cared about for several months. The food, fellowship and free haircuts continued. Resume writing services, day care for the children, business attire for job interviews and networking about possible job leads were added. Friends were reacquainted, relationships fostered and the presence of the Holy Spirit was, indeed, felt.

While it would seem that this experience was all about giving to others, in the giving of ourselves, our time, our resources and the sharing about a good and merciful God with a bigger plan, we were touched, we were blessed and we were given to. All the glory goes to God for this wonderful experience. What a fantastic opportunity for receiving and responding to God's love!

For more information about ways to support Aloha Airlines employees or if you or your family is in need of assistance, please contact Wellspring Covenant Church or visit www.sharealoha.wordpress.com. 🌿

BIH Attends Honolulu 2008 Conference

In April, Assistant Director Joanne Naai and Executive Director Clive Cowell co-labored with Directors Kimberly Frank and Kaylene Kamada at the annual Hawaiian Islands Ministries Conference, Honolulu 2008: A Future and a Hope. Our booth in the Exhibit Hall was busy as scores of people came by – some curious to find out what we do, some to pick up the latest newsletter, others to express gratitude for the work of BIH, and still others to get a piece of candy or BIH pen! We met friends from days gone by (former Executive Director Rod Franklin and his wife Donna came from Illinois!) and made new ones. This year marked HIM's 25th anniversary and over 4,300 people attended, deepening their faith through inspired speakers and wonderful times of worship. These Honolulu Conferences are a testimony of bringing many people together. If you have never attended an HIM conference, we encourage you to go next year (March 12-14, 2009)! 🌿

In and Out of the Classroom

Adjunct faculty member Pastor Brad and Becky Smith are grandparents again. Granddaughter Christina was born March 24, 2008, in Chicago to Dan and Nina Smith.

Brad will chaperone a group of eight young people from Makiki Christian Church to Kochi, Japan June 10-24. Kochi was the home town of Makiki's founding pastor, Takie Okumura. The church tower is modeled on Kochi Castle. Since the church's centennial celebration in 2004, there have been a number of visits back and forth between residents of Kochi and members of Makiki Christian. Several visitors from Kochi have become Christians.

Upon his return, Brad returns to the BIH classroom to teach a five-week course on Genesis. See page 5 for details!

Congratulations to Pastor Steve Sturm, who graduates this spring from San Francisco Theological Seminary with his Doctor of Ministry degree. Steve is also now accredited as a Board Certified pastoral Counselor. This summer he will offer a new BIH course on discernment designed to help us wade through the many choices life has to offer (see page 5).

The Kwons

There's always a surprise when you ask the Rev. Nelson Kwon what he's up to these days. Besides preparing to guest preach in May, he is writing an arrangement of "Jesus Loves Me" with brass and traps to be sung by the Sunday school children, men's group and Women's Chorus at Manoa Valley Church on May 25th. (Nelson is founder and director of the Women's Chorus.) He and his wife Grace are also readying their home to care for Grace's mother, so any free time is spent washing screens, louvers, learning to use Safeway's Rug Doctor, and painting. "Funny how when painting starts," he says, "it goes on. Now Grace has me painting the hallway." Watch for Nelson to teach again in the fall at BIH.

Vicki Wiley Lepick, BIH's Children's Ministry specialist, was glad to teach 16 Sunday school teachers on Maui "10 Ways to Make Sunday the Best Day of the Week." Participants in the seminar held April 26th at Kahului Union Church included some from the Maui Marshallese churches. Many thanks to our Maui board for arranging this special offering, especially Amy Hanlon, Kahu Lowaena Hau, David Murata, Edie Tyau, and Fumi Uehara.

Don't miss Vicki's next seminar for Sunday school teachers on O'ahu: "Children's Ministry Fall Jump Start" on Saturday, July 26th. It's just in time for fall church school planning. See page 6 for more details.

The 200+ who attended BIH's 35th Anniversary Celebration in June 2007 saw that the Rev. Don Baron was indeed back! After his "pure Baron" keynote address, many asked when he would be teaching for BIH again. Trips to New Zealand and Taiwan kept him from the classroom until this spring, when he offered "The Gospel of Isaiah" for 28 eager students. His seminary-level handouts and challenging assignments have kept them on their toes. This summer he'll offer one of his favorite courses, "An Armchair Tour of Israel."

Dr. Robert Neff

This past Winter Quarter BIH students enjoyed again the teaching of Dr. Robert Neff. With his cheerful and organized wife Eivor accompanying him to every class, Bob taught four courses on O'ahu and one on Maui over two weekends. He also preached at several different churches.

"We're busier in the two months we're in Hawai'i than in the rest of the year in Tennessee," they laugh. A highlight for the Neffs was an interisland trip on the Superferry. Their return voyage was cancelled due to rough seas, resulting in some last-minute scrambling to book an airline flight back to O'ahu.

Students in one of Dr. Neff's courses, "Why Should We Pray," at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church in Kailua, enjoyed hearing

These BIH students know where heaven is. They took Dr. Neff's Winter course, "The Other Side of Eternity: What Can We Expect?" (photo courtesy of Scott Craven)

guest speakers on various topics related to prayer: Fr. Joe Carr from Calvary Episcopal Church on fasting; BIH faculty member Ada Lum on how to dialogue with God and journal prayers; Chris Baron from Good Shepherd Lutheran Church on intercessory prayer; Yuka Okamura and Brian Nakatsuka from Imago Dei Christian Community and Eivor Neff on spiritual warfare.

Mary, Martha,...

...and Henry

In April we said goodbye to registrar Lucille Caldwell, who leaves BIH due to increased family responsibilities. At a farewell lunch for her, Executive Director Clive Cowell presented Lucille with a framed collage of her BIH friends, two hens she had named Martha and Mary, and Henry, a white rooster. Martha, Mary, Henry and their extended family roam the grounds outside the BIH office on Nu'uuanu Avenue.

Although we were sorry to see Lucille go, God has provided. New registrar, Sayaka Nakano, former Preschool Director at Honolulu Christian Church, brings skills of organization, enthusiasm and a deep love of God and of His Word to BIH. Sayaka is a graduate of the University of Hawai'i and International College and Graduate School, besides having studied at Tokyo Biblical Seminary. She also assists her parents, Rev. Yuichiro and Meiko Nakano, in their work as the founders of Mount Olive Ministries. Welcome, Sayaka!

Sayaka Nakano

BIH sends condolences to the family of BIH Board President John Enomoto, whose father, John George Enomoto, passed away in April. Please keep John's mother Elaine and the family in your prayers.

We end with glad news of another birth, this time to the family of Board member Kimberly Frank, who with husband Trey and daughter Griffin welcomed Marin Elizabeth Frank into their arms March 27, 2008. Congratulations and restful nights to all! 🌸

Griffin and Marin Elizabeth Frank

As a ministry that serves the Church, BIH also partners at times with other ministries. We'd like to highlight in this issue the Waterhouse Lecture Series. Enjoy!

The Alec and Belle Waterhouse Lecture Series, a ministry of Waialae Baptist Church, is funded through a charitable trust created by the late Alexander C. Waterhouse. Mr. Waterhouse, a kama'aina businessman and member of Waialae Baptist Church, provided for the funding of an annual lecture series covering subjects furthering the tenets of Christianity. The Lecture Series is designed to provide high-quality, life-changing events that are both biblical and relevant in meeting the spiritual needs of the people of Hawai'i. In meeting this objective as well as the mandate of the trust, the Lecture Series seeks to find topics, speakers, forums and formats that will be cross-denominational and reach out to those who have never heard the Word of God or who desire to be stronger witnesses of God's love and saving grace.

Waterhouse Lecture Series Events for July 2008

His Touch Seminar with Jerry Larson

Sunday, July 13,
North Shore Christian Fellowship, Haleiwa

Sunday, July 20,
Waialae Baptist Church, Kahala

Jerry will preach at both churches during the morning worship. The seminar will be held from 4:00 – 8:30 p.m. each evening. Cost: free.

The seminar teaches how to share one's faith with gentle persuasion. Participants are taught how to get involved in others' lives, to live out their faith and be able to express their faith in a way that is appealing and encouraging to others. The seminar is geared for the average person in the pew rather than the highly motivated person. Registration required for notebook purposes only.

Summer 2008 Schedule of Courses

June 17-August 6, 2008

Tuesdays

An Armchair Tour of Israel

The Rev. Don Baron

As you follow Jesus through the Gospels, can you picture the lay of the land where He traveled – Cana, where He turned water into wine? Capernaum, which served as His ministry headquarters? Caesarea Philippi, that distant spot where He took His disciples on retreat to contemplate who they thought He was? This course will equip you to better visualize the Bible as you read it, and prepare you for a future on-site tour of the land we call holy because God walked there in the flesh and left His footprints.

Course BSTU110

Tuesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

June 17 – August 5 (8 weeks)

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Chapel
638 N. Kuakini St., Honolulu

Discernment: Experiencing the Presence and Leading of God in Everyday Life and Decision Making

Rev. Dr. Steven Sturm

Do you ever feel as though life offers too many choices? How do we decide what to choose? And how do we discern what God would want us to choose? In this course we will approach discernment as a way of living in friendship with God, who offers us guidance in this life. We will gain insights from Scripture and classic Christian spirituality to develop skills in the art of discernment, hearing and following the call of God in a life full of choices. Required text: Listening to God in Times of Choice by Gordon T. Smith.

Course CLIV124

Tuesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Christ in the Workplace: Lessons from Colossians

Mr. Clive Cowell

Can Christ be found in the corporate offices and cubicles of downtown Honolulu? If so, where? Or are we so caught up in our jobs that we forget about Him? Who is Christ anyway? This study of Paul's letter to the Colossians is specially tailored for those in the business world. Come learn how we can break free ... in Christ!

Course NT407

Wednesdays, Noon – 1:00 p.m.

June 18 – August 6 (8 weeks)

First Hawaiian Bank Building,
10th Floor Conference Room

Colossians: It's All About Christ

Mr. Clive Cowell and Dr. Randy Furushima

Is Christ really out there? How do we know? Has anyone truly seen Christ? If so, where is He? Who is Christ, anyway? In this interactive class, we'll learn about ... Christ! A significant portion of this class will be devoted to learning how to break free from the ties that bind us, so we can break free ... in Christ! Bring a Bible and notepaper.

Course NT407b

Genesis: Foundation of the Solid Foundation

Pastor Brad Smith

A solid foundation makes for a good building. The Good Book (the Bible) has a solid foundation – the Book of Genesis. In it we find the accounts of Creation, the Fall, Noah and the Flood, the histories of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph. But it also raises questions. We hear Jesus referred to as “the second Adam.” Who was the first Adam, and why did we need a second one? If the Christian church is the fulfillment of a promise that goes all the way back to Genesis, what is that promise? Jesus chose 12 apostles to be the foundation of the “New Israel.”

Where did the founding fathers of the 12 tribes of the original Israel come from? It's all in Genesis. Come enjoy this foundational book together.

Going Deeper with God in the Psalms

Miss Ada Lum

The Psalms are mirrors of all human experiences and emotions. When you respond to the honest thoughts and feelings of the writers with, “Hey, that's me, too!” you understand yourself better as a human being. When you see God as they did, you will go deeper with God. In this course you will learn different ways of breaking down the psalms so they become more practical. You will learn to hear God more directly and talk back to him more frankly.

Course OT402

Thursdays, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

June 19 – July 24 (6 weeks)

Mr. Michael Dredla

Did you ever wonder why the Apostle Paul was upset with the church he had planted at Thessalonica? It seems they were so focused on the “last days” and the triumphant return of Jesus that they were forgetting some of the elementary things in life, like making a living, spreading the Gospel, raising up disciples. Does this sound familiar today? Are some Christians more interested in the Left Behind series than in our Lord's teaching? Join us as we move back in time to the Thessalonian church and see how the Lord, through his servant Paul, provides corrective guidance, with great love, to urge His church to get its head out of the clouds and into the reality of everyday living... for the glory of God.

Course NT408

Thursdays, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.
