TWO GENERAL SESSIONS

Encounter the Word

Dr. Randy Furushima

The discovery of the Book of the Law (2 Kings 22) by Hilkiah the high priest resulted in King Josiah's conclusion that the people "had not acted in accordance" with God's Word. When we encounter or re-encounter the Word, we are faced with the decision to either continue in our complacency or re-commit ourselves to faithfulness. We will discover how Josiah acted in response to this encounter with the Word. We will learn lessons of faith, devotion, and renewal.

Enriched by the Word

Dr. Randy Furushima

On the day of resurrection, Jesus spent several hours teaching the Bible to two distraught and discouraged disciples who were walking home after their messianic hopes were erased with disappointment at the reality of the crucifixion and grave (Luke 24). Then the revelation of Jesus through the study of the written Word enriched the lives of these two disciples. When they got home, Jesus reveals Himself to them in the breaking of the bread, and their lives were changed. We will review lessons of the revelatory power of God's Word.

SIX BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Gospel Identity: Freedom From Performance-based Living

Pastor Todd Capen

This session will explore how to live a less reactive and insecure life as we wrap our arms around the Cross, receiving and living by our status as adopted sons and daughters. How can we get to that place where we need others less and love them more? What do our anxieties reveal about our practical, daily grasp of the Gospel? This session will warm the heart with the Father's love and help attendees to rest in fully in this love.

Toward Effective Lay Counseling in the Local Church

Dr. Mike Dugal

Effective biblical counseling in the local church is every Christian's responsibility. The Holy Spirit distributes gifts for the purpose of mutual edification. Whether it be encouraging each other or edifying another brother or sister in Christ, effective biblical counseling is first and foremost every believer's responsibility to provide Christ-centered, Bible-based, and Spirit-led disciplines in loving and honoring one another.

New Testament and the Trinity

Dr. Matt Sanders

Seeing the Trinity in the New Testament changes everything. We learn what love is, what the kingdom is, and who God is. This seminar will introduce you to this essential life-changing and church-changing truth.

How to Hear from God Through His Word

Dr. Martha Stinton

God created you to love you. And in this love is God's desire that you hear his voice. So how do you personally hear his voice? We invite you to come and discover the various ways you can hear the living God speak to you through his Word.

How to Interpret the Bible

Dr. Rick Stinton

The Bible is the most amazing and inspirational book ever written. It is God's book. Yet the Bible can be hard to understand at times. Why do people who read the same book come to different views? How do we determine the right interpretation? Join us to explore some keys to correctly handling the word of truth.

LUNCH PANEL DISCUSSION

A panel representing our speakers will receive and respond to any questions you have regarding their breakout topics or any general topic related to the Bible. The topic of the panel will underscore the theme of "Empowered by the Word," so all of your questions will be significant to our receiving insight and wisdom in God's Word.
