GRK101

Beginning Greek I – The Greek Verb

Dr. Matt Sanders

In this course, we will use 1 John 1 to begin to learn New Testament Greek. This course will focus on the basics of Greek verbs. In most sentences, the verb controls the rest of the sentence. We will look at how Greek verbs are formed and how to recognize the different parts and what they mean. Understanding this will help us take a big step toward reading and translating NT Greek.

Talk Story about Your Story - Small Kine Miracle Story, Your Testimony

Pastor Earl Morihara

Everyone has an amazing story about how they trusted Jesus and how their lives are with Jesus is way better now. But why are not people telling their amazing life-changing stories? Some don't tell their stories because they don't know how to go about telling their stories well, or have had bad experiences doing so, and most of all, don't even think their stories are worth telling. In this six-week class, we'll learn the power of sharing your story as one of your greatest means to share the love of Jesus with those around you. You'll learn to tell your story with more conviction and clarity. At the end of class, you will have your own booklet created as your resource to tell your amazing story.

Genesis: The Book of Origins

Dr. Rick Stinton

Genesis is the book of origins. It sets our world view by revealing where we came from: who God is, who we are, and our purpose in life. Genesis lays the foundation for God's work of salvation throughout history. Most importantly, the book introduces us to the Lord Jesus Christ, and it's fulfilled in him. Join us on a journey through this amazing book of the Bible!

Biblical Turkey Seminar: The Seven Churches of Revelation

Dr. Randy Furushima

Over 60% of the places mentioned in the Bible are found in Turkey, known as the "Second Holy Land." While in exile on the Greek island of Patmos, near the shoreline of southeastern Turkey (Asia Minor), Jesus Christ spoke to John in a vision. These words to the seven churches are found in the first three chapters of the book of Revelation. The messages of Jesus to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea are worth examining today for its power and insight into our Christian faith. These short and concise "letters" reveal the struggles and strengths, warnings and praises addressed to the churches. We will review the main ideas embedded in these sermons to the churches, which is as relevant today as they were during the first century.
