The Book of Acts and Modern Missions 21st Century

Dr. Bong Ro

Discover 'Biblical Perspectives on Missions: Exploring Acts and Beyond,' Trace the impactful path from Peter's powerful Pentecost sermon to Paul's transformative journeys in the Book of Acts. Discover the significance of these events in early Christian missions and draw relevant parallels to today's 21st-century endeavors. Delve into practical strategies for promoting missions in Hawaii, taking into account its unique context. This course blends academic study, theological reflection, and hands-on application, empowering students to actively engage in the mission of the Church. Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your understanding and participation in spreading the Gospel!

Pray-walk Through the Psalms with the Ancient Hebrews (in Mandarin)

Dr. Shan Chen

Situated at the center of the Bible is the book of Psalms. A book of prayer and praise, it grants privileged access into the ancient Hebrews poets, from King David to court musicians to common people, in which they expressed to God their innermost feelings. The wide spectrum of feelings expressed in this beautiful poetry still reverberates through the centuries, enriching the prayer language of saints and deepening their faith walk. This class on Psalms will mainly be conducted in Mandarin Chinese. At the end of this course, students will write a poem of their own, articulating their experiential walk with God.
